Chicago, IL – December 24, 2010 – Axis Global Partners, a leading full service Sage Software business solutions partner of accounting, customer relationship management (CRM), business intelligence (BI), warehouse management systems (WMS) and human resource management systems (HRMS) is pleased to announce that they have been chosen as a Bob Scott's Insights 2010 VAR Star. This is the third year that Axis Global Partners has received this selective award.

Bob Scott's Insights awards the VAR Stars honor annually to the top 100 reselling organizations in North America. Bob Scott, an 18-year veteran journalist, knows the trends and conditions affecting businesses today. According to Progressive Media Group's article featuring the VAR Stars, Mr. Scott said, "Firms that are thriving in the economy are diversifying their product lines, investing in their people and increasing marketing budgets."

"Axis Global Partners is proud to be recognized as a 2010 VAR Star," said Manny Buigas, Principal of Axis Global Partners. "This award is a true testament to Axis' commitment to superior service and outstanding solutions that produce a return on every investment, especially in this challenging economic climate."
