Miami, FL – September 17, 2012 – Manny Buigas, Principal for AXIS Global Partners, will be speaking as a panelist in the Technology track at Accounting Today's 3rd Annual Growth and Profitability Conference.

Accounting Today, a leading provider of online news for the business, tax and accounting sector, began hosting its annual conference in 2010. Three years later, the Growth and Profitability Conference has become the most comprehensive event in its industry, providing attendees with critical knowledge needed to build stronger and more efficient businesses. This year's conference will focus on helping practices meet today's technological, political and economic challenges, as well as highlight the best practices of the most successful firms.

The four in-depth tracks will focus on the key areas that pertain to businesses, including Tax, Technology, Practice Management and M&A. Manny Buigas will be participating along with other panelists in the Technology track, "How Firms are Using CRM to Grow Their Organization and Remain Profitable".

"I am honored to have been chosen as a panelist for Accounting Today's Growth and Profitability conference," comments Manny. "This is a great opportunity for practices looking to invest in a CRM system. The tips, tricks and best practices that will be shared among the panelists will help attendees get the most growth possible out of their system."
