AXIS Global Partners Expands Offerings and Expertise to Clients by Adding Ottawa Location

Chicago, IL – April 5, 2010 – AXIS Global Partners, a Sage Software premier business partner specializing in the sales, installation, and support of Sage solutions including accounting, customer relationship management, business intelligence, human resources and warehouse management solutions for small and medium sized businesses, is pleased to announce that it has merged with AccountTech, one of Ontario's leading accounting solution providers.

Manny Buigas, Principal of Axis Global Partners stated, "The addition of AccountTech to the Axis Global Partner team is strategic to our goal of providing clients with the best resources, expertise and quality business software available and this merger will accomplish that. Our clients will benefit from having one of the most experienced team of specialist in the channel.

This merger provides a mutual win for our offices and our clients. Our clients will now see additional benefits some of which include: access to Business Intelligence, CRM, Warehouse Management and ERP experts as well as online training videos and a live help line. It's the same people, location and great service, but with a new name and even more value, stated Howard Whiting, President of AccountTech."

Tony Chiodo, Principal of Axis Global Partners, stated "this is another significant step forward in our strategic initiative of providing multi location clients with turnkey solutions that best meet their needs. The addition of the talented individuals of AccountTech will blend with the experience of our current team for the benefit of our clients".
